MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST BYLAWS

Article I PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is "diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ's Kingdom on earth."
2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.
3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the "Conference." The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

In his talk he emphasized that artistic media are meant to give shape to the ordinary experiences of life. Dr. Allen's address was followed by a song break, led by the Rev. Ms. Betty Ure.

The Moderator called upon Mr. Ronald McLean, Associate Conference Minister for Social Responsibility and Mission Outreach. Mr. McLean introduced the Rev. * Appendix A -- GUIDELINES FOR CLERGY COMPENSATION 1990
(for use with Guidelines for Clergy Compensation booklet from the Conference Office)

The 190th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, commends the effort of the local churches in endeavoring to reach the goals recommended in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation 1989. These are minimum recommendations. They apply to all full-time pastors, associates and assistants.

The 190th Annual meeting recommends that:

- (1) churches pay a minimum entry-level cash salary of $16,750 for a full-time pastor and minimum salaries as listed below in B;
- (2) churches not at the minimum salary work toward the minimum and also at improving C, D, and E, below;
- (3) churches reimburse fully all professional expenses;
- (4) churches already at or above the minimum and also providing for C through F give at least a cost-of-living increase and consider a merit increase.
- (5) the work schedule of local pastors be no more than twelve units per week with no more than three evenings in any given week; in addition that pastors take off at least three consecutive days each month. 1

A. CONSIDERATIONS FOR DETERMINING CLERGY COMPENSATION

While the ministry is a unique profession requiring special patterns of financial compensation, several overall factors can be considered in determining the level of support for clergy. The total compensation package could justly be comparable to the median income of the parish and perhaps be on a par with that of the local high school principal, showing consideration for years of service, special skills, and training and including annual cost-of-living increases. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy and the compensation package can be designated in a way to maximize the pastor's income. 2

B. MINIMUM CASH SALARY

The minimum cash salary (not including housing and other expenses) ought to be as follows:

of Church Members	yrs. experience
	0 - 3	4 - 10	over 10
up to 300	16,750	18,100	19,500
301-500	16,750	19,400	22,400
501-1000	16,750	20,700	25,600
over 1000	16,750	22,000	29,000

Therefore, if a pastor of ten years ordination/experience arrives at a congregation with 375 members, she or he should receive a base salary of not less than $19,400 (recognizing certain regional variations).

Minutes

C. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

The church should provide an amount equal to at least one-half the self-employment SS tax of 13.02%; such an allowance would be taxable income but would ease the burden of the big Social Security tax.

D.* HOUSING THAT PROVIDES:

- (1) a furnishing allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan for those living in a parsonage; OR
- (2) a housing allowance for those who rent or own their homes.

E. BENEFITS THAT PROVIDE:

- (1) a pension plan, with a church contribution of 14% of salary basis, which is (a) at least 130% of cash salary plus any furnishings allowance for those living in a parsonage, or (b) cash salary plus housing allowance for those with such allowance;
- (2) a family protection plan, including disability insurance, which is an additional 1% of the base used for the annuity;
- (3) group life insurance which costs $50 per year;
- (4) medical and health insurance, plus dental care;
- (5) continuing education funding;
- (6) sabbatical education funding;
- (7) holiday and vacation time;
- (8) maternity/paternity paid leave (including adoption).

F. ALL PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

The new tax law allows the deduction of business expenses only on Schedule A and any stated allowance for these items must be included in income. Most taxpayers no longer itemize since higher deductions are given to everyone. Therefore, it is important that churches reimburse, or pay directly, all of the costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expense. Included are:

- (1) books and professional subscriptions;
- (2) professional memberships;
- (3) travel expenses and car allowance (church-owned car or travel reimbursement);
- (4) any other expenses incurred by the pastor and directly attributable to the exercise of ministry.

* Appendix B - RESOLUTION ON HOMELESSNESS AND THE HOUSING CRISIS

WHEREAS God calls us to share our bread with the hungry and to bring the homeless poor into our homes (Isa. 58:7a); and

WHEREAS in biblical terms a society is judged by the degree of compassion shown to its neediest members (Matt. 25); and

Minutes

WHEREAS General Synod 16 voted that the homeless poor would be a priority of the United Church of Christ for the next four years; and

WHEREAS the United Church Board for Homeland Ministries has called for an all out campaign to end homelessness in America and is asking for the participation of every UCC church toward that end; and

WHEREAS many of our churches in the Massachusetts Conference have demonstrated their concern for the homeless poor by establishing or supporting shelters and feeding programs, and yet the problem is growing; and

WHEREAS there are estimates of up to 3 million people who are currently homeless, 12,000 in Massachusetts alone, including large numbers of children who are the fastest growing group among the homeless; and

WHEREAS homelessness is symptomatic of the lack of safe, adequate, and affordable housing, but federal spending for affordable housing has been severely cut from $32 billion in 1979 to $7 billion in 1988 and in Massachusetts 60,000 families qualify for and are awaiting housing assistance but only 1 in 5 will receive it; and

WHEREAS a recent MIT study indicates that as many as 19 million Americans will face the prospect of homelessness by 1999 if government intervention is not forthcoming, which highlights the fact that while the churches and other non-profit institutions must take a leading role, the magnitude of the housing crisis is of such proportions that they cannot adequately address the problem alone.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 190th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ recognizes the crisis in housing and the problem of homelessness as a major concern for the church, and that the Board of Directors of the Conference be urged to:

1. explore developing a portion of the Framingham property for construction of affordable housing;
2. support and encourage support of a special endowment fund whose purpose is to offer financial assistance to non-profit development projects that are producing a stock of affordable housing. The Board of Directors is encouraged to start this fund with $100,000.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Massachusetts Conference commends and encourages the Commission for Mission Development and Social Responsibility in its efforts to organize resources and personnel to educate and mobilize churches on this crucial issue and to develop an advocacy network in support of the introduction and passage of federal legislation that would restore spending for housing to at least the pre-1980 levels; and that Associations be encouraged to establish or urge their committees to do the same.

ALSO BE IT RESOLVED that the 190th Annual Meeting urges local churches of the Massachusetts Conference to engage in efforts to address this crisis by:

1. continuing to support and expand efforts in the area of sheltering services;
2. considering the use of endowments to assist in developing and constructing affordable housing;
3. advocating on behalf of the homeless poor through political action at the local, state, and federal levels of government to insure that safe, adequate, and affordable housing is available to all members of our communities;
4. participating in acts of public witness, such as the national Call to Action: Housing Now! which will take place in Washington, DC on October 7, 1989.

* Appendix C -- RESOLUTION ON EXPANDED CRITERIA FOR DIVESTMENT

Theological and Historical Context

... the time has now come for the Churches to call for action of economic pressure including disinvestment. Because it is a peaceful means to put pressure on the South African government to bring about those changes that our country needs so desperately.

You will not ask whether your action will make us suffer. You will begin to understand, as a woman said on Friday in Johannesburg, the difference between suffering in hopelessness and suffering with hope. You will begin to understand that the vision that we have is of a land of peace, of justice. We will be seen to be God's children and we will participate in a democratic structure of government. We will be part of the land, and we will dream that dream as long as we can. We know that that dream will not be given us as a present from an oppressive government, but that we shall have to struggle and we shall have to fight and we shall have to suffer for it. But I would rather suffer in the cause of the struggle for justice, than suffer one day when I would have to stand before the throne of God and say that I have no wounds to show because I did not participate in that struggle.

When the Church of Jesus Christ faces and challenges the power, whether they be in the Republic of South Africa or the United States of America, we do not do this because we are powerful. We do not do this because we think that we are strong. We do not do this out of a sense of bravado. We do this because fundamentally and essentially the Gospel does not leave us any choice. It does not leave you any choice.

We do this not in our own name, what we are, and who are we, but we do this in the name of Jesus Christ, who is Lord and King of Kings and Ruler of the Kings of the earth and who is the Word of Life. In this name we shall overcome war and strife and establish God's own peace. In this name, we shall overcome hatred and we shall learn to love, because to love is to live.

from an address by the Rev. Allan Boesak at the Fifteenth General Synod

Background

In 1985 the Fifteenth General Synod and the 186th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference called for full divestment of all financial resources from all corporations doing business in South Africa.

In 1986 the Massachusetts Congregational Fund, which holds the endowment of the Conference and the investments of many Massachusetts Conference congregations, responded to this action by its total divestiture of securities where the issuing company was directly involved in business dealing in South Africa.

In 1987 the Sixteenth General Synod voted to expand the criteria for divestment to include corporations which:

- "a. have direct investments in South Africa or Namibia, have employees in either of these countries, or have entered into franchise, licensing, distribution, technology, or trademark agreements with or for any entity in those countries;
- b. are financial institutions that have engaged in or not prohibited new investments, loans, credits or related services, or the renewal of existing financial agreements, including those for the purposes of trade with any entity in those countries. (A company with operations in South Africa or Namibia for the sole purpose of reporting the news shall not be considered doing business in those countries.)" 87-GS-71

Furthermore, the Sixteenth General Synod called upon all national bodies, Conferences, congregations and members of the United Church of Christ to use the criteria above.

In 1988 officers of the Congregational Fund approached the Massachusetts Conference, the largest shareholder, for guidance regarding the most recent Synod action. Those officers stated concern that the expanded criteria, coupled with existing policies against investment in companies producing alcoholic beverages, tobacco products and armaments, would so reduce the number and variety of investment possibilities that there would be a risk of measurable depreciation of both income and principal in the funds.

Proposal for Action

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 190th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ recognizing the cost that such action may imply:

1. reaffirms the commitment to full divestment of financial resources from all corporations doing business in South Africa; and
2. calls upon the Massachusetts Congregational Fund to proceed with divestment of holdings in companies indirectly engaged in business in South Africa using the guidelines adopted by the Sixteenth General Synod; and
3. urges congregations holding shares in the Massachusetts Congregational Fund to retain their holdings in the fully divested Fund and encourages Massachusetts Conference churches to increase their participation in the Fund or other fully divested investment vehicles; and
4. encourages the Board of Ministerial Aid, the Women's Home Missionary Union, the Boston Seaman's Friend Society and other Massachusetts agencies related to the United Church of Christ to adopt the guidelines of the General Synod for divestment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the 190th Annual Meeting thanks the members of the board of the Massachusetts Congregational Fund for their leadership in providing to the Conference and its churches investment vehicles that promote financial stewardship and social justice.
